

YOUNG ZIONISTS DEMAND RADICAL REORGANIZATION

Activists Draft Administration Platform to Throw into Teeth of London Conference.

BY FORNIE FAIRBANKS.

LONDON, July 7.—Demanding a radical reorganization in the administration of the Zionist body, to be met with the organization of an international Jewish militia for the defense of Palestine, a group of young British Zionist "activists" went into secret session today to draft a platform which they intended to throw into the teeth of the Zionist conference now sitting here.

The action of the young firebrands in the most sensational incident of the day, it forebodes a bitter clash upon the floor of the Zionist conference. The activists are led by Max Grossman, a Russian resident of London.

Grossman outlined the most important activist demands as follows:

1.—An international militia to guard Jewish land and to replace the British troops.

2.—Restricted immigration into Palestine instead of "selective" as provided by convention.

3.—The formation of an international Jewish congress outside the Zionist organization, to give the Jews of the world an opportunity of making their wishes heard in the future.

4.—The immediate floating of a $100,000,000 loan to finance the Jewish homeland, asking Jews the world over to contribute 10 per cent of their income.

5.—Radical reorganization of the "executive" governing boards of the Zionist organization and injection of Jewish blood into executive positions.

6.—There are only 80,000 Jews in Palestine, they are unable to furnish the necessary 10,000 militia troops, so we must organize volunteers in America, England, Russia, and other countries," said Grossman.

7.—In the convention declare that an international Jewish army would have the Zionists in diplomatic engagements. Max Nordau also proposed the demand for such an army, though he favors the proposal of unrestricted immigration.

8.—Name Dr. Brandeis as President of the United States Supreme Court, and elected president of the International Zionist Congress, and that the Zionist body should be organized in seven years to formulate a program that will be agreed to by Palestine, Dr. Nordau, of London, was chosen honorary president.

9.—The Zionist body should elect representatives of every civilized country. Dr. Nahum Sokolow, of Bern, as chairman, said that the Zionist body must consider the question of immigration and finance.

RUMOR GERMAN BUYING SENDS ARGENTINE CORN UP

Sharp Advance Follows Upon Report That Germans Are in Market for Argentine Corn.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Buenos Aires, July 7.—Recent sharp advances in the price of Argentine corn are attributed to the rumor that news leaked out that the German government had contracted with a Dutch firm for the purchase of 1,000,000 tons of the cereal. The contract is said to be guaranteed by the German government and is to be paid for month by month as the corn arrives out of the proceeds of the German government monopoly of potato and ketchup soda. The corn is to be used chiefly for raising pigs in order to remedy the dearth of fatty foodstuffs in Germany.

Since the beginning of the year the price of corn has risen to the equivalent of $1.25 per bushel, from $1.00 at this price would amount to about $14,000,000. Hardly more than 20,000,000 bushels are being burned in Argentina for fuel.

NEW ORLEANS OPERATES FIFTY-SIX STREET CARS

Seventh Day of Strike Reports Minor Disorders, With No Serious Clashes.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 7.—The New Orleans Power and Light Company operated fifty-six cars today, the seventh of the strike of union employees, and while minor disorders were reported, no serious clash took place.

An attempt to derail a car in one of the outlying sections was reported to the police, and police reserves were sent to one of the cars where a crowd had gathered near one of the cars ran off the track.

Cars running on several lines in the city tonight were not attacked or molested in any way.

LONGSHOREMEN'S TIE-UP IN PHILADELPHIA AT END

Agreement Reached Whereby 7,000 Men Out Since May 26 Will Return to Work Today.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—Final arrangements to return to work of the 7,000 longshoremen, dockers and stevedores, who have been on strike at this port since May 26, were completed today at a conference between representatives of the shipping industry, strike leaders and Chairman of the Industrial Relations Commission.

The men will return tomorrow at the rate of pay, time and a half for overtime and double time for Sunday were continued.

GERMAN CONSTABULARY FOR CRIME SUPPRESSION

Increase in Criminal Element Accelerates Establishment of State Police Force.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BERLIN, July 7.—A report at the beginning of a State police force in Germany is the establishment of a State police force, which have been increasing so rapidly throughout the country that the authorities have been unable to cope with them.

It is necessary to organize police forces of their own, but this is a task of considerable magnitude.

Spanish Planes Bombard Rebels.

Madrid, Spain, July 7.—A squadron of Spanish airplanes yesterday bombed rebel encampments in the vicinity of Beni Ghorfad, Northern Morocco.

Considerable damage was done.

APPOINTS ADMINISTRATOR FOR T. P. SHONTS' ESTATE

Court of Appeals Sustains Order Taking Property Out of Control of Widow.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 7.—The County Trust Company of New York was granted temporary administration of the estate of Theodore P. Shonts, late president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company of New York City, in a decision by the Court of Appeals late today.

The decision of the surrogate of New York County, vacating a prior order granting letters of administration to Milla D. Shonts, the widow, was affirmed.

Mr. Shonts left an estate of about $3,000,000. Besides making specific bequests to his wife and daughters, he acknowledged an indebtedness of $100,000 to his wife and gave the remainder of his estate to Amanda Thomas, a friend. It was declared that the first letters of administration were issued under the mistaken notion that Mr. Shonts left no will. Later a will was presented.

BALTIMORE TO VOTE ON SUNDAY MOVIE QUESTION

Court Rules Legislature Within Rights in Enacting Referendum Legislation.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—The voters of Baltimore this fall will be given the opportunity of saying whether the people shall enjoy motion pictures after 2 P. M. on Sundays, unless appeal is taken and the court of appeals overrules the decision handed down today by Chief Judge Soper of the Supreme Court.

Judge Soper holds that the General Assembly acted within its powers in providing for a referendum on the subject, and declares that the petition of the Lords Day Alliance for a writ of mandamus forbidding the board of election supervisors from putting the question on the ballot did not justify the issuing of the mandamus.

QUEEN MARY ENEMY OF PROFITEERING MERCHANTS

When Overcharged on Afternoon Frock She Promptly Carried Garment Back.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BUENOS AIRES, July 7.—Queen Mary served notice on all Roumanian merchants today that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The Queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected, and for which she demanded the equivalent of about $40.

TWO ARRESTS PENDING IN ELWELL MURDER CASE

Prohibition Agents Have One Man Under Surveillance and Spread Net for Other.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

NEW YORK, July 7.—One man is under surveillance of members of the prohibition enforcement agents' staff tonight in connection with the Elwell liquor transactions and perhaps the murder of Joseph B. Elwell. It was said both men will be arrested as soon as the second, who is "missing," has been located.

Earlier in the day, prohibition enforcement agent Shevlin had issued orders to his operatives to arrest the men; he changed this when he learned one could not be found, since he intends to have both arrested at the same time.

Mrs. Josephine Lewis Peet Wilmerding, who was questioned today by Assistant District Attorney John T. Doelling, denied categorically all charges made concerning her relations with Elwell in the affidavit of Anna Kane, and denied emphatically ever having quarreled with "Miss Wilmerding."

"I cannot understand Anna Kane's motive in saying what she is quoted as having said," Mrs. Wilmerding told her questioners.

District Attorney Edward Swann gave out a lengthy statement this afternoon, in which he said the authorities have discovered many contradictions in statements made by W. H. Pendleton, former racing partner of Elwell.

"Detectives working under the guidance of the district attorney have unearthed numerous contradictions of the stories told by William H. Pendleton," he said, "particularly as to his whereabouts on the night of June 10, and the early morning of June 11—the morning when Elwell was found murdered."

It was said the two arrests by prohibition agents would be followed by several others, presumably members of the booze ring with which Elwell is said to have been associated, and which included many of his wealthy friends.

Uphaw Congratulates Cox.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 7.—Representative Uphaw, of Georgia, a national lecturer and former Vice-President of the Anti-Saloon League, today sent Governor Cox, of Ohio, a telegram of "heartiest congratulations" on his nomination as the Democratic candidate for President.

McAdoo Congratulates Roosevelt.

NEW YORK, July 7.—William Gibbs McAdoo today sent the following telegram to Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, who has been named as the Democratic party's vice-presidential candidate: "Please accept my warmest congratulations and best wishes for success."

DIENL ELECTRIC FANS

Can now be obtained at the Singer Shop

No. 207 W. Broad St. 4 N. 15th St.

XANTHINE

Gives the results—and satisfaction. Absolutely stops all scalp troubles, prevents dandruff, promotes growth, restores gray and faded hair to its own natural color. Xanthine a dye, marvelous in its effects. At all druggists.—Adv.

Hotel Bretton Hall

Broadway, 85th to 86th St. Subway Station at 86th Street Corner, NEW YORK.

Largest and Most Attractive Midtown Hotel. Convenient to All Shops and Theaters.

At the Comfortable Advantages of the Best New York City Hotels at Attractive Rates.

TRANSIENT RATES EITHER ONE OR TWO PERSONS.

Room with Private Bath, $1.50, $2.00 during summer months. Single and Double, $1.00 up.

RESTAURANT OF HIGHEST STANDARD AT ATTRACTIVE PRICES.

PETIT & COMPANY.

20% OFF

All Summer Furniture!

Hickory, Hickory, complete sets of Chairs, Rockers and Stools separately.

Porch Rockers, Porch Swings, Couch Hammocks, etc.

Call early while stocks are complete.

Women Made Young

Bright eyes, a clear skin and a body full of youth and health may be yours if you will keep your system in order by regularly taking

GOLD MEDAL HARLEM OIL

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles, the enemies of life and looks. In use since 1895. All druggists, three sizes. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation.

ANTHRACITE OPERATORS OPPOSE INVESTIGATION

Fight Submission of Exhibits Before Commission Dealing With Alleged Profiteering.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 7.—Strong opposition to not only the submission of exhibits, seven in number, dealing with the alleged monopolistic control and profiteering in the anthracite industry during the past five years, but also the public argument when the advisability of the presentation of the figures and evidence would be thoroughly discussed, was put forth by coal operators at sessions of the anthracite mine commission here today.

The persistent effort of the mine owners to withhold all figures from the public which might show the revenue and income of the various companies, resulted in the first executive session of the commission this afternoon.

The executive session was held to determine whether another executive meeting would be conducted tomorrow morning, at which time the argument on the submission by the United Mine Workers of the exhibits would take place.

Afterwards it was announced no decision had been reached and the matter went over until tomorrow.

BRITISH MINERS DEMAND INCREASE IN WAGE SCALE

Proposals For Five-Day Week and Strike If Executive Order Were Defeated.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LONDON, July 7.—A conference of delegates representing 900,000 miners assembled at Leamington today, adopted a resolution demanding that the government concede an advance in wages of two shillings daily and immediately reduce the recent addition of one shilling per ton to the price of domestic coal.

Proposals for a five-day week and to give the executive committee of the miners federation power to call a strike without a ballot of the members were defeated.

For the present, there is no threat of a strike, but the action taken was intended to strengthen the policy of forcing the government into nationalizing the coal mines.

PREVENTOL

Kills Moths, Roaches, Bed Bugs, Germs. Disinfects against disease. Exports Files and Mosquitoes. Sprayer and Pin Can, $1.20 at your dealer's.

An Old Sore

does not heal because the pus, which is continually forming, poisons the surrounding flesh.

Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil

Stops the formation of pus, destroys the poison and heals the sore. It Stops Pain and Heals at the Same Time.

30c 00c $1.20

DIENL ELECTRIC FANS

Can now be obtained at the Singer Shop

No. 207 W. Broad St. 4 N. 15th St.

Note These Exceptional Prices for July

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

VACUUM CUP CORD TIRES

OIL COMPANY DECLINES TO FILL GOVERNMENT ORDER

Contests Right of Navy Department to Fix Price Under War-Time Measure.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Refusal of the Union Oil Company to deliver 100 barrels of engine oil to supply a destroyer at $1.60 a barrel, the price fixed by the Navy Department, even under threat of seizure, has been reported to the department, Captain J. J. Cheatham, navy supply officer at Mare Island Navy Yard, reported today.

Under the Lever act the government claims the right to fix prices and commander oil, according to Thomas A. Hayes, assistant to the president of the Union Oil Company, but he declared it was unjust for the navy to attempt to use a war-time measure to exact a more favorable price than other customers were paying, the market figure being $2.60, he said.

Captain Cheatham said he transmitted the Navy Department's demand and threat to the Union Oil Company, that further action rested with Secretary Daniels, who left for the North today on the superdreadnought New Mexico.

DYER'S REMOVAL UPHELD BY BRITISH ARMY